

The Twenty-second Sunday after Trinity

He delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all

INTROIT

Si iniquitates (Psalm 130)

IF thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark iniquities, Lord, who may abide by it?
For unto thee belongeth mercy, O God of Israel.
(Psalm 130) Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end, Amen
IF thou, O Lord, wilt be extreme to mark iniquities, Lord, who may abide by it?
For unto thee belongeth mercy, O God of Israel.

THE EPISTLE

Philippians 1.3-11

BRETHREN: I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, for your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now; being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

GRADUAL AND ALLELUIA

(Psalm 133)

BEHOLD, how good and joyful thing it is, brethren, To dwell together in unity.

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, That ran down unto the beard, even unto Aaron's beard.

Alleluia. Alleluia.

(Psalm 115) Ye that fear the Lord, put your trust in him: He is their helper and defender. Alleluia!

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 18.21-35

AT that time: Peter said unto Jesus, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellow-servants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow-servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.
